

STUDENT RESOURCES

SOAR - Student Online Achievement Resource

SOAR is a FREE resource available to all military families worldwide and the school districts that serve them. SOAR is not a tool for grade placement or a standardized testing program, but it does allow students to take assessments in line with individual state standards and provides tutorials that assist in strengthening any weaknesses a child may have before they arrive in their new location. SOAR can also be used at any time as a general practice tool to assist students with skills. Language Arts and Reading as well as Mathematics for grades 3-12 are covered in SOAR.

Tutor.com

Tutor.com is an online tutoring company that offers FREE one-to-one help from certified teachers 24/7 to military children. Learning takes place in a secure, online classroom using an interactive whiteboard, file sharing and instant messaging to work through student's problems. This web site offers students of all ages the help they need to succeed in school and beyond.

Students at the Center

An educational resource for military families, military leaders and school leaders from The Department of Defense Education Activities Educational Partnership. It provides information on important policies, procedures, and best practices that are critical to supporting the educational needs of military families. It also includes information on military terms and acronyms.

Military Youth on the Move

A wonderful resource that reaches out to youth with creative ways to cope with issues that arise in the face of a move, such as transitioning to a new school, saying goodbye to friends, and getting involved in a new community.

Staying Strong

Staying Strong is designed to support the resilience of military-connected children and families through free on-line educational tools and guidance.

Military Kids Connect

This site helps military kids connect with each other and share common concerns.

Military One Source

Military OneSource is a free service provided by the Department of Defense to support military members and their families with concerns like money management, spouse employment, education, parenting, relocation, deployment, and family members with special needs. Services are available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week from any location in the world.

Sesame Street DVD: Talk, Listen, Connect

This Free downloadable DVD aims to provide support and significant resources for military families with children between the ages of two and five who are experiencing the effects of deployment, multiple deployments, and combat-related injuries.
