

TOOLKITS, TRAININGS & BEST PRACTICES

AASA Toolkit: Supporting the Military Child

This kit provides guidance for school leaders on meeting the unique educational needs of children whose parents are deployed or in transition.

John Hopkins University – Military Child Initiative: Building Resilient Kids

This free online course is for school administrators, support staff and teachers to help all students meet life's challenges with resilience, focusing primarily on students from military families. FREE CEUs and option for graduate credit available.

Military Impacted School Association

The Military Impacted Schools Association provides resources and links for educators to address deployment and transition issues for military families on the move.

Military Child Education Coalition \(MCEC\)

The Military Child Education Coalition (MCEC) is a non-profit organization focused on ensuring quality educational opportunities for all military children affected by transitions and deployments. MCEC conducts research, develops resources, and offers professional development for educators (Transition Counselor Institutes, Special Education Leaders Institute, Living in the New Normal, etc.)

John Hopkins University – Military Child Initiative: Best Practices Library

This website offers countless resources on best practices related to school connectedness, academic engagement, inclusion, participation and school climate.

Military Impacted School Association \(MISA\) Promising Practices

MISA is a national organization of school superintendents whose mission is to serve school districts with a high concentration of military children

The appearance of a website on this page does not imply official endorsement by the DoD; It is merely provided as resource for your convenience and consideration.